2. Judges will certify to the Chairman that none of the contestants is related to them nor has the contestant been a student of theirs within the previous twelve (12) months.

3. Judges will refrain from making any public statement whatsoever concerning the activities of the Competition.
4. The judges will vote by secret ballot.
5. Judges will not abstain from voting.

G. VOTING AND COUNTING

1. Judges will receive a ballot for each contestant from the Chairman of the Competition.
2. At the conclusion of each Division, judges will be asked to cast a ballot for each contestant.
3. Ballots will be cast individually by each judge without discussion.
4. In the event a situation occurs that is not covered by the preceding, then the 1st Place winner will be determined by a discussion among the judges, supervised by the Chairman.
5. The tabulation of votes will be supervised by the Legal Advisor and one other person designated by the Chairman.
6. The judges have the right to withhold any prize in any Division if the judges determine no contestant in that Division is considered qualified for such prize.
7. The decision of the judges is final.

H. THE CHAIRMAN

1. The Chairman shall be responsible for the management of the Competition. The Chairman represents the American Harp Society to the judges, the contestants, and all outside parties in all matters.
2. The Chairman is entrusted with the investigation of any infringements of the rules and may take any steps required in consultation with the Legal Advisor.
3. In all matters, the Chairman is authorized to delegate powers or specifically designated functions to others.
4. Public statements concerning the Competition will be issued only by the Chairman.
5. The Chairman will preside over the tabulation of the ballots.
6. The Chairman will publish the results.
7. The Chairman will explain the rules and procedures to the contestants and the judges.
8. The Chairman or designated surrogate will be present at all performances of the Competition.

I. THE LEGAL ADVISOR

1. The AHS will appoint a Legal Advisor whose function will be to advise in legal matters.
2. Decisions regarding questions of procedure not settled by these rules will be settled by the Chairman of the Competition, the Legal Advisor, and the National President of the American Harp Society, Inc.

J. PRIZES

1. Contestants will be awarded Certificates of Participation.
2. Prizes are presented to the winners at the Winners' Recital, following the completion of the final division performances. This recital will be recorded.
3. The winners of the 1st, 2nd and/or 3rd prize in each division may be expected to play without remuneration at the Winners' Recital. Excuse from this performance must be requested in advance.
4. The winner of the Young Professional Division will be presented at a national conference and will be the AHS Concert Artist for two years.
5. Winners must accurately represent their winning status at all times.
