

The American Harp Journal contains articles designed to inform and educate about harpists and the harp, and to create an archival record of the activities of the Society.

The American Harp Journal includes:

- Articles of educational content
- Articles concerning harp maintenance and construction
- Biographies of major harp figures of the past and present
- Bibliographies and historical studies
- Listings of new harp publications and recordings

Who We Are

The American Harp Society, Inc. (AHS) was founded in 1962 to assist, encourage, and unify performers, teachers, students, composers, and aficionados. Today, there are nearly 3,000 individual members in the Society with over 70 state and local chapters throughout North and South America, Canada, and Puerto Rico.

Duo Scorpio performs at the 50th Anniversary of the AHS at our 40th National Conference in New York City in July 2012.

The American Harp Society, Inc. is open to professionals, amateurs, and those who have an interest in all kinds of harps. The Society's mission is to celebrate our legacy, inspire excellence, and empower the next generation of harpists.
